

2nd Brent Endocrine Study Day

Wednesday, 7th May 2008
Avery Jones Postgraduate Centre
Central Middlesex Hospital
Acton Lane, NW10 7NS

Chair: Dr. Senan Devendra, Imperial College, London

9.00 – 9.50: Clinical Biochemistry: Ca⁺⁺ & Vit D in the community
Dr. Yetunde Baoku, NWLH trust

9.50 - 10.40: Psychiatric Medications & Diabetes: is there a link?
Narinder Lidder, Birmingham

10.40 – 11.10: Tea/Coffee break

11.10 – 12.00: Gliptins and GLP-1: will NICE recommend this ?
Dr. I. Idris, Nottingham

12.00 – 12.50: Thyroid Biochemistry in the community: case studies
Dr. A. Basu, Birmingham

12.50 – 1.30 : Lunch

1.30 – 2.40 Testosterone Deficiency in Diabetes: should we be screening?
Prof. Hugh Jones, University of Sheffield

2.40 – 3.30: Chronic Kidney Disease: am I doing it right in primary care ?
Dr. Rob Lewis, Surrey

3.30- 3.45: Tea/Coffee break

3.45 – 4.30 Post Prandial Hyperglycaemia: is it crucial to measure this ?
Dr. Marc Evans, Cardiff

4.30- 5.15: Obesity : who & when to refer for Surgery & does it work?
Dr. Wing May Kong, Central Middlesex Hospital , London