

Hammersmith Hospital 13th Multidisciplinary Endocrine Symposium

Fri 6th Dec 2019

Wolfson Conference Centre

Hammersmith Hospital, London

8.30am Registration & Coffee

8.55 Welcome and Introduction

(Fausto Palazzo, Karim Meeran & Waljit Dhillon)

Session 1: Hyperaldosteronism

9am Hyperaldosteronism: making the right diagnosis (and getting the correct side)

Prof Mark Gurnell, Cambridge University

9.30am Adrenal vein sampling for Conn's syndrome – is it necessary?

Prof Karim Meeran, Imperial College

International Guest Lecture 1:

10am Conn's Syndrome: Are we operating on enough patients & are we doing it correctly?

Prof Menno Vriens, Utrecht, Holland

10.30am *Clinical Cases

10.50.am Coffee Break

Session 2: Multidisciplinary Endocrine Surgery

11.20am Endocrine tumours in the chest and how to remove them
(including thoracoscopic PTX and ectopic ACTH removal)

Mr Jon Anderson, Hammersmith Hospital

11.50am Parathyroid carcinoma

Mr Fausto Palazzo, Hammersmith Hospital

12.20 Clinical cases

12.50pm Lunch & Poster session

Session 3    Phaeochromocytoma

1.50pm        Why and how to block phaeochromocytoma patients for surgery

Dr Hilary Bridge (Oxford)

2.10pm        International Guest Lecture 2

Breaking news in Phaeochromocytoma surgery!

Prof Martin Walz, Essen Germany

2.50pm        Coffee Break

Session 4:    Primary Hyperparathyroidism

3.10pm        The 2019 NICE guidelines for pHPT; What should we be doing?

Prof Neil Gittoes, Birmingham

3.40pm        Imaging in first time parathyroidectomy: Help or hindrance?

David Scott Coombes, Cardiff

4.00pm        New frontiers in imaging in re-operative parathyroidectomy

Dr Tara Barwick, Charing Cross Hospital

4.20pm               Clinical Cases

4.50pm               End of Day