

Hammersmith Hospital 16th Multidisciplinary Endocrine Symposium

Programme Friday 3rd Dec 2021

Session 1: Adrenal disease (Chairs: Dr Anjali Amin and James Ahlquist)

- 9.00am Syndromic pheochromocytoma explained Prof Tricia Tan
- 9.25am Subclinical Cushing's Syndrome: Conservative vs Surgical Management
Dr Florian Wernig
- 9.50am Adrenal imaging demystified: The non radiologist guide to adrenal imaging
Ali Al Safi (Imperial College Healthcare)
- 10.10 New ways to interpret adrenal venous sampling Zaineb Mohsin (Oxford)
- 10.25 discussion
- 10.30 break

Session 2: Renal PTH & Neuroendocrine (Chair Dr Preeshila Behary and Tricia Tan)

- 11.00am Renal hyperparathyroidism: The evidence for & against parathyroid surgery
Dr Neil Duncan
- 11.30am Pancreatic neuroendocrine tumour and medical management explained
Prof Martyn Caplin (Royal Free Hospital)
- 12.15pm Abdominal neuroendocrine tumours the evidence for surgery
Mr Mikael Sodegren
- 12.40 Case of carcinoid heart disease Dr Pei Eng and Dr Florian Wernig
- 1pm Lunch (no posters this year)

Session 3: Parathyroid & Thyroid (Chair David Scott Coombes and Alex Comninou)

- 2pm Normocalcaemic primary hyperparathyroidism; Diagnosis & what to do
Dr Jeremy Cox
- 2.30pm Radioiodine vs Surgery for Graves Thyrotoxicosis revisiting the evidence
Dr Mark Vanderpump
- 3pm Thyroid cancer – How biomarkers are changing treatment of thyroid cancer
Miss Aimee DiMarco
- 3.25pm When to remove a parathyroid in a young woman with MEN 1
Harriet Esdaile
- 3.45pm Progressive weakness with a miraculous recovery Mariana Abdel-Malik
- 4.10pm Feedback & Close